Police 'Call' on Vet's Post

Two Sierra Madre police officers entered the local VFW Post on Montecito Sunday morning a few minutes past 2 o'clock, and took beer bottles from the tables and out of the hand of one member seated at the bar.

Officers I. E. Alcon and K. B. Bassett reported on the police log that at 2:05 a.m. they "observed persons drinking in the club after hours." A few moments later they said they had arrived at the station with "evidence of liquor law violation."

A fine point, whether it is illegal to be drinking from a bottle, bought during legal selling hours, two or five minutes after have ended, was raised yesterday by Post Commander Robert Schmitt and Tom Marchine, post bartender here for several years.

According to Marchine, the officers came in at 2:02, by his watch, to the bar where members were cleaning up after a Father's Day dance.

"They didn't say anything," Marchine reported. "Nobody was sitting at the tables, but they took a beer bottle from Mrs. Schmitt's hand. She was helping clean up. Then they came up to the bar where maybe five or six persons were sitting and they took a bottle right from one man's mouth. He was drinking the last swallow. Then they left. It was 2:04 by my watch. If they were going by the wall clock—it's six minutes fast."

The law, section 25632 of the Alcoholic Beverage Act, states that it is a misdemeanor to permit alcoholic beverage to be consumed on licensed premises during the hours that it is unlawful to sell such beverage.

Strictly interpreted this would mean that a drink bought shortly before 2 o'clock closing could not be finished at a fraction of a moment after the legal curfew.

Schmitt and Marchine both contended yesterday that a few minutes of grace should have been extended to allow members to finish what was in hand and give members a chance to clean up.

Police Chief Gordon McMillan said yesterday that no arrests had been made to date and that the affair was still under investigation.

Green Frog Re-opening Starts Today

Roberts Market, the Home of the Green Frog, will celebrate its grand re-opening today through Saturday with free orchids for the ladies and 150 food prizes.

Started in 1925 as a fruit and vegetable stand, the market has grown continuously and is now celebrating the completion of its new delicatessen department.

The new addition provides for a larger grocery area, an expanded produce display, better facilities for the counter service meat department, a bigger delicatessen department with a kitchen where home-style foods and salads are prepared daily for housewives. All the beverages are housed in the new department, including liquor, wine, beer and soft drinks.

Increased parking space also has been provided on the east and south sides of the store. (See photos on Page 4.)

HEAT VICTIM

Valentine Ratliff, 82, of 1121 S. First, Arcadia, was a victim of the heat Monday when she keeled over at the Woman's Club. She was attended by a local physician who said she suffered an attack of high blood pressure provoked by the extreme heat.

Buses to Bowl Concerts Set, Step Right Up

Buses for Hollywood Bowl concerts will, for the first time, take off from Sierra Madre's city center, deliver riders at the concert and bring them back home.

Carl Engle, Music Shop owner, will handle both concert tickets and bus fares for at least three of the summer concerts.

Buses already are scheduled for July 12 (Nat "King" Cole); August 8 (Dorothy Kirsten); August 20 (William Steinberg), and the "Gershwin Night" concert if there is sufficient demand.

Reservations for the musical round trips should be made promptly with Mr. Engel. Bus fare and tickets cost $2.00.

Combined Schools Are Desirable, Dewar Says

By Marjorie Parker

(This is the second in a series of articles on problems and possibilities of combining the Sierra Madre and Pasadena Elementary School Districts. Other opinions will appear next week.)

Three years' intensive work for the Pasadena and Sierra Madre School Districts qualifies J. A. Dewar, 154 Santa Anita Ct., as an interested, well-grounded spokesman for the belief that Sierra Madre should unify its elementary school with those of Pasadena.

Mr. Dewar, an engineer who has lived here 10 years and whose four children went through local schools and through the Pasadena secondary district, began his school interests with membership in the 1954 Messer Committee.

This group set up the $9,000,000 bond issue requirement for the Pasadena district on a pay-as-you-go basis, reducing estimates from approximately 18 millions.

HE SERVED on the Tax and Bond Committee, the Citizens Tax Information Committee and was chairman of the organization which produced 15,000 signatures favoring the proposed high school site at Victory Park. The site was procured.

He was also a member of the Executive Committee of Citizens Supporting Good Education which backed the successful candidates for the Pasadena School Board.

The following outline, prepared by Mr. Dewar, covers important areas for consideration by Sierra Madre citizens:

I. FINANCIAL Advantages.

The best way to compare the relative ability of school districts to support education is to compare the figure of assessed valuation per ADA. ADA means average daily attendance by students and is the method of computing used by the State of California for apportioning funds to school districts. Schools are supported by state and local funds.

The 1955-56 assessed valuation ADA of the Pasadena Elementary School District was $14,600. For Sierra Madre, as quoted by School Superintendent Charles A. Skutt, the figure is approximately $13,500. It is obvious that if Sierra Madre were annexed to Pasadena, Sierra Madre would receive approximately the same assessed valuation ADA as Pasadena.

It is also clear that the greater wealth and assessed valuation of Pasadena would be spread to include Sierra Madre. The advantage to this is that the same tax rate now applied here would raise more money—or, conversely, the same amount of money as is now raised, could be raised with a lesser tax rate.

2. TAX BASE.

A further illustration of the value of greater assessed valuation may be had by comparison based on the total tax bases of Sierra Madre and Pasadena.

A one cent tax rate increase in Sierra Madre would result in an increased dollar return of $1,285, based on Sierra Madre District total assessed valuation of $12,800,000. Compared to this, —Turn to Page 4

Simpson Girl Survives Car Accident

Phyllis Simpson, 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Simpson, 520 Ramona, lies seriously injured in Sierra Madre Hospital after a freak accident Saturday when she slipped under the rear wheel of a car.

Little Phyllis, who was walking down Auburn with her sister Pat, 14; Sharon Westover and Lynn Eickelberger of Pasadena and Pat Dickson. The girls were offered a ride home by Edwin L. Ower, 17, of 81 Auburn.

As they clambered into the car, Pat Simpson was the last one to enter, holding Phyllis by her hand. Before she could bring the child into the car, young Ower started it rolling down the street.

The girls screamed at him that Phyllis was still outside the car, but by the time he could halt it, the little girl had slipped from her sister's hand and swung under the rear wheel which passed over her head. Her sister Pat, still reaching for her, fell from the car into the street.

The Ower boy stopped the car, picked up the little girl and started with her for the office of Dr. M. H. A. Peterson but passersby drove them to the hospital.

In surgery doctors found the child had suffered a fractured skull, fractured shoulder, deep skull lacerations and abrasions of the face and the entire body. Her father reported yesterday that she was resting comfortably and showing some improvement.

Her older sister, Pat, was treated at the hospital for a puncture wound in her elbow and released.

Sailor, 18, Saved by Searchers

Michael Dougherty, 18-year-old sailor stationed on the U.S.S. Bremerton, was carried from San Olene Canyon Sunday afternoon by members of the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team.

Michael was hiking with a group of friends when he fell from the Santa Anita Trail. He suffered deep cuts on his right hand and his left ankle was seriously injured.

Members of the Rescue Team reached the boy at 6:30 p.m. After treating his hand and splinting the leg he was carried to Chantry Flats by litter, and sent to the Temple City Hospital.

Participating in the rescue were Earl and Edward La Lone, Minor Harkness, John Grippi, Howard Miller, Bill Adams, Hubert Herick, Bill Wark and Ralph Shangraw, forest ranger and member of the team.

Roger H. Wood Gains Honors, Divinity Degree

Roger H. Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Randolph Wood, 38 E. Grand View, received his Bachelor of Divinity degree, with honors, last Thursday from the Church Divinity School of the Pacific in Berkeley.

His brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. David Wood, and their daughter attended the ceremonies. On June 29 Mr. Wood will be ordained a deacon in the Episcopal Church by Bishop Richard Watson in St. Mark's Cathedral, Salt Lake City, Utah. His parents will attend the ordination.

Mr. Wood served in the U.S. Navy from 1943-46 and then obtained his BA degree from Stanford University in 1948. In 1952 he received his law degree and later served on the staff of the Legislative Council in Sacramento for two years.

He is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wood. His brothers are Councilman David Wood and artist Alan Wood.

Change Time On Rehearsal

Rehearsals for the Sierra Madre Concert Band for the months of June and July will be held in the Music Building at Pasadena City College, Director Walter Laursen announced yesterday. The building is located a little more than a block south of Colorado on Sierra Bonita. Parking will be available in the lot adjacent to the building.

Marie Wald Named as Library Head

Mrs. Marie Wald, 35, is the announced choice of the Sierra Madre Library Board to fill the librarian post held for 35 years by Miss Lulu Moore, now retiring.

Mrs. Wald holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from USC and this year completes her Master's degree in library science at that university.

She is presently living in West Covina with her 14-year-old son and three daughters, aged 12, 11 and 8. She has worked previously as substitute librarian in the Covina Library and held other library posts during her college years.

Webster Vannier, board president, said Mrs. Wald was the board's unanimous choice out of some 35 candidates, many of whom were easterners. She will assume assistant librarian duties July 1, serving with Miss Moore until she is able to take over full duties.

At Miss Moore's retirement, remaining staff will include Mrs. Gloria Hinshaw, full time assistant; Mrs. Marjorie Ashmore Black, part time assistant, and Mrs. Marian Tarr, part time library clerk.

Jail and Bail Netted by Two

Leo E. Clifton, 49, was sentenced Monday to 30 days in the County Jail, following his arrest Sunday by local police officers. He was charged with being drunk in auto. He has been arrested several times in the past on the same charge, according to police records.

Robert Earl Purcell, 44, 561 W. Grandview, was released on $50 bail after his Sunday arrest on the same charge.

Local Youngsters Receive Awards

Approximately 135 students from the Sierra Madre School and the city's two parochial schools—St. Rita's and Ascension Parish—were graduated in ceremonies that ended Monday.

The latest to be graduated were three girls from Ascension School, Joan Carolyn Briggs, Janet Diane Phillips and Georgia Ann Zurn.

In ceremonies Monday, the Rev. Harley G. Smith, Church of Ascension rector, delivered the greetings, while the commencement address was made by Rev. Canon Douglas Stuart, dean of the Los Angeles Convocation and rector of Grace Church.

THE THREE girls who were graduated from the eighth grade sang the "Alma Mater," and the Children's Chorus sang "Let There Be Peace on Earth."

Georgia Zurn presented the traditional gifts from the graduating class to the school. This year all the students contributed and bought the school a movie projector with sound equipment and a classroom desk.

The remainder of the money donated was put in a fund to buy films. Graduation exercises were followed by a reception in the Parish House.

The 34 eighth grade students who were graduated from St. Rita's at ceremonies Thursday night are:

Randolph Alfieri, Jeanne Auger, Edward Beardshear, Robert Burke, Charles Collins, Edward Creighton, Cecilia Cuecia, John Davis, Anthony de la Torre, John Diemer, Patricia Flynn, Raymond Fuller, Richard Galhouse and Anthony Larcombe.

Also, Martin LuVisi, Michael Maloney, Veronica Marchine, Scharlie Jo Marsh, Paul Marshall, Wendy Marquand, Norman Mellor, Pamela Nuetzel, Daniel Paulus, Sharon Rhodes, Sheila Sheasby, Margaret Sidenfaden, Edith Smith, Kathy Snow, Daniel Springate, Joan Tracy, JoAnn Trotter, Barbaraann Volmert, Louann Volmert and Barbara Wright.

Students began their graduation day by receiving communion at the 8 a.m. mass, which was followed by the traditional breakfast served by mothers of the seventh grade.

In the evening the eighth graders marched to the church and each graduate sat in a pew with his family to hear a sermon by Father Harold Leach, C.P., former assistant at St. Rita's and retreat master at the Passionist Fathers Monastery. Father Thomas O'Malley conferred the diplomas, followed by benediction sung by the seventh grade choir.

A reception was held later in the Parish Hall.

Orchids will be presented to all ladies in the audience and festivities will begin in earnest at 7 p.m. when Mayor Charles James and Chamber of Commerce President Robert Green will conduct the opening ceremony.

George Munton, manager, who has been in charge of the renovating, said that a new screen and new sound system had been installed in the theater. Film changes are scheduled for twice a week and Saturday, Sunday and holiday shows will start at 12 noon.

An all-Disney show commences Sunday with "Westward Ho the Wagons" and "Cinderella."

NEW OFFICERS OF the Sierra Madre Coordinating Council were installed at recent ceremonies in the Woman's Clubhouse, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. They are, from left, Dr. Paul Narocowich, president; Mrs. Betty Ames, vice president; Ray Obazawa, treasurer; Mrs. Lois Walker, recording secretary, and Clinton Symonds, corresponding secretary.

At Last, a Theater!

Our best wishes this week go to the new owners of the Sierra Madre Theater, which will open again Friday.

The last pictures that played at the theater, according to the tattered marquee, were "Unguarded Moment" and "Moby Dick." That was more months ago than most of us care to count. In the meantime, the local theater stood in all its woe-bedraggled splendor as a monument to bad management and, just possibly, the 21-inch screen.

Some claimed that unruly juveniles were responsible for the sorry shape of the theater, responsible, indeed, for its demise.

This is unlikely as the base cause, although teenagers did from time to time run wild. They slit seats, tore some from their moorings and in general made the movie such a frightful and noisy place that adults were loath to pay the price of admission.

But teenagers in Sierra Madre generally are law-abiding, respectful young citizens. Certainly they are no more unruly than those of other cities.

If treated with respect and common sense, most teenagers reciprocate in kind.

The new owner of the Sierra Madre Theater, the Linton Corp., is experienced in movie management. The firm owns theaters in other places and operates them intelligently and profitably. There is no "juvenile problem."

Under proper management there will be no "juvenile problem" in the theater here, either.

We are confident that the Sierra Madre Theater, starting Friday and for many years to come, will be an asset to the town. —H.W.E.

Your Congressman . . .

Only 2 of Ike's 19 Major Items Have Become Law

By Edgar W. Hiestand, Rep. 21st District

In past years I called the Congresses "do nothing" and "do nothing important," because the output was so slim. By those yardsticks, however, the 1957 Congress can be characterized as "do less than nothing."

Of 19 major legislative proposals that President Eisenhower put before Congress in January, only two have become law—the Mid-East Doctrine and extension of excise and corporation taxes.

The rest have bogged down somewhere in the legislative mill, either because of Congressional inertia or because they're too explosive politically.

WE'RE EXPECTING to adjourn some time between Aug. 1 and 15. That doesn't leave much time to consider many measures adequately, the way they should be. So I think you can write off many of them right now as not having a chance.

This isn't catastrophic. In my opinion no law is better than a bad law. Before some of these laws could emerge from committee they'd be bad bills. It's better to leave many of them in committee than to rush them before the Congress when it had "adjournment fever," pass them and then try to repeal the inequities after the damage is done.

But the fact is that politics has played a highly important role in the lack of action. Democrats, who control Congress, have been accusing the Republicans of failing to support the President, yet have done little to bring his proposals to the floor where they can be accepted or rejected.

Here's the present outlook for some of the major bills: Federal aid for schools: Interest is waning and the outlook is dim. At least 11 governors have expressed themselves as wanting "no government school aid." The bill has cleared the Education and Labor Committee and is awaiting clearance from the Rules Committee, but even if it gets to the floor it is threatened with crippling amendments.

Foreign aid appropriations: We'll pass a bill, but the problem revolves around "how much" and "to whom." It's doubtful that the President will get as much as he wants. The Senate Foreign Relations Committee has completed hearings. They're now being held by the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

HOUSING: Both the House and Senate have passed different versions of this bill. It will have to go to conference, but objections are now blocking this. Last year we passed a watered down housing bill in the final hours. Chances are the same will happen this year.

Military construction: A welter of projects totaling $1.5 billion are now undergoing hearings. California would get about 10 per cent of these. Passage of almost all is likely.

Postal rate increase: This has cleared the House Post Office Committee and awaits clearance from Rules. With skillful maneuvering the bill could pass, but there are so many side issues—like the threat of a rider to make postal pay boosts concurrent with postal rate hikes—that the prospects are muddy.

POSTAL PAY INCREASE (and raises for classified government workers: Here's a political football that could bounce either way, depending upon how the bill comes out of committee. Pressures are heavy on Congress to bypass the committee and these pressures are hurting final chances for a raise.

Labor legislation (minimum wage extension, Taft-Hartley revision, control of union funds): These measures are all involved in tugs of political war. We'll probably adjourn before acting on any of them.

Immigration law changes: Hardly possible this session. Nobody's pushing too hard for changes anyway. No hearings are scheduled.

STATEHOOD for Hawaii and Alaska: Two separate matters. Hawaii is doubtful this year. Alaska has an outside chance because the bill has cleared committee. But despite an active campaign by Alaskans, the bill ranks as "luxury legislation," something that will be considered when and if there's time. And it's doubtful there'll be time.

Hoover Bipartisan Commission bills: Everybody talks about saving money, but a congressman trying to get action on specific money-saving bills faces a tough road. Nobody in power—and in Congress that's the other party—shows any enthusiasm for getting the bills to the floor.

Civil Rights: Southern opposition dooms this in the Senate.

June Wedding, the Get-Away

Around the Square

By Marjorie Parker

Hanging over the counter, Larry Garland talked about the early days of search and rescue in these mountains.

Before any squad was organized, there was an understanding that men, able to get up and down the slopes, would volunteer in case of need.

Came such a day when the children of a local poet turned up missing. Larry, who could get up and down then, joined with others and began a wearying day-long search. No children.

At about 5 o'clock the searchers heard the horn blast down town which meant they should come down. They did. Seems the children had been found hiding in St. Rita's church.

That was Larry's last search.

SCENE ON THE STREETS: A young boy pedaling solemnly down Los Robles on a clown's bicycle. His seat was at least six feet off the ground—the handlebars up four, his young face dead-pan as people stopped and stared.

And in Altadena at a stop signal, drivers looked incredulously around when the signal changed and from behind came the impatient honks of a street car bell. It issued from a pickup truck which bore out front an ancient sign "Car Barn Only," and inside a gentleman who was enjoying himself.

POSTSCRIPT on Marshall Mendel's Labrador retriever who presented him with 11 puppies. She fell ill and had to be taken away from the puppies and the Mendels are now feeding 11 little mouths.

Crosby, Como Testimonials To Good Entertainment

By Fred Edmunds

Is it just coincidence? But, now that I think of it, the two most popular male vocalists on the entertainment front for the past two generations have been gentlemen who, in their public appearances, have emphasized the relaxed attitude of just being "natural."

Either on radio or TV, they make themselves welcomed guests in any home; practically one of the family.

And in these successes we can find hope for the cultural tastes of the American public. Regardless of the flash in the pans, the entertainment "freaks" that rise to reported popularity because of the antics of publicists basking in reflected sensationalism, the continued real popularity of Bing Crosby and Perry Como is a testimonial to entertainment in good taste.

SPEAKING of current music in the popular vein, I can recommend highly the recent Steve Allen recording of "Do You Ever Think of Me?" A rhythmical example of what can be done with the piano and violin strings.

CALIFORNIA license plate combinations continue to intrigue me. I am still wondering if the young man in

AND, incidentally, the Albert Stewart sculpture show brought over 200 signatures in the register at the Library gallery. Among them were Arthur Miller, critic of the L.A. Times. We made it, kids.

AND WHO was the prominent, canny citizen who, with his hands some wife, stayed four hours at a cocktail party last week because they'd hired a baby sitter for the ir grandchild at a four-hour minimum?

Watch on the Potomac

By Robert G. Spivack

ANYTHING FOR A PAL— Robert B. Anderson, the new Secretary of the Treasury-to-be, is in hot water even before taking office. It's all because he tried to help out a fellow-Texasan.

The man-in-need turned out to be Sid Richardson, the multi-millionaire Texas oilman, one of the richest men in America with a net worth estimated at $500,000.

Richardson was hopping mad because the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers wanted to acquire full title and rights to some 1,207 acres of land Richardson owned at a flood control project near Fort Worth.

Money wasn't the issue. He was willing to let the government have the land under an "easement rights" arrangement for $1. The engineers offered to buy it out-right for $162,000.

What Richardson objected to was letting commonfolk cross his land to fish at the Bentbrook reservoir or hunt in the vicinity of his property or simply picnic around the place. He wanted and got the reservoir as a "private lake."

ALL THIS information was brought out at hearings of a House Government Operations subcommittee, headed by Rep. Earl Chudoff of Philadelphia. Chudoff apparently didn't realize what a powerful man Richardson is supposed to be—or he wasn't impressed. Anyhow he is one of the few men in Congress who dared to tackle the oil tycoon.

What Chudoff discovered was that Richardson, never one to deal with underlings, took the case all the way up to the White House and made a "personal complaint" to the President.

The President personally intervened, ordered an investigation and eventually

The Sports Editor
And/or Harry Elwood—
Printer

Dear Sir:

It has, naturally, escaped your attention that sports history was made over the weekend by a number of Sierra Madre and Coronet golf players.

In the annual "Beat the Champ" tournament three locals and an "ex" done it. A. Suman, also known as A. L. Suman, and in art circles as Lawrence Suman, recently a member of a group endeavoring to inject culture herein, was low net at Santa Anita Golf and Country Club.

Another of those to beat Middlecoff was W. Fenimore Cooper, former Sierra Madre, now living in the Oaks, where there are even more nuts.

Also Bill Murphy of Coronet (or is it Cornet) homes made it, due mostly by being given his son's (Dennis) handicap. Frank Spencer, a resident of the golf course, naturally was successful.

Mr. Suman (A. A. L. or Lawrence), contacted for a statement, had this to say:

"This is a very gratifying honor, especially since I have been playing this game for only 35 years. It all goes to show that people should stick to things in which they have talent.

"Middlecoff should stay in people's mouths—also Valois. That I beat him (Middlecoff) by 14 strokes was not a true picture of our respective talents. I only needed three strokes."

Mr. Cooper, a direct descendant of Leather Stocking, said, "Middlecoff? Did he play in the winter national?"

Mr. Murphy said:

"I challenge that butcher at Roess Market."

Mrs. Spencer:

"In Bastogne we played in the snow."

The mayor had this to say:

"Who can score when you always have to play with prospects?"

Mr. Bevington, who with Mr. Kalicka co-runs the city, said, "Even on Saturday Kay is watching."

Mr. Kalicka replied, "Vice versa, and also May Wright."

Joseph Custer, undoubtedly the best golfer in town, had this comment:

"For me he (Middlecoff) is easy. Them other champs are easy, too. Sorry I'm so confined at home with the gripe. Me, too, I'm easy."

SCHOOL UNIFICATION

Dear Sir:

"In truth," says Miss Newton, "school unification has been discussed ever since I have lived in Sierra Madre, and I moved here when I was 6 years old." Reading on one gathers always a minority promoted unification—there were discussions—nothing done. (S.M. News 6-13-57).

In truth something was done, and what was done has since made the discussions, not malcontents. It was done before the erection of the Highland Avenue school, for the Highland Avenue school was built as a sixth grade school, with no shops, cooking rooms or laboratories, and the Highland Avenue school will be 30 years old next year, with our initial bonded indebtedness cleared on this building. Los Angeles County has us as a sixth grade elementary school district—but prior to this something Sierra Madre was an eighth grade district. Sierra Madre entered into a contract with Pasadena to take our seventh and eighth grades at what it cost Sierra Madre to educate through the sixth grades—and we assumed our proportionate costs of Pasadena bonded school debts. It is a good tight contract, and during the depression with empty classrooms in Sierra Madre we didn't send our seventh and eighth grades to Pasadena—but we still paid for the housing costs. We were, still, legally, a sixth grade elementary school district.

The State of California slightly confuses the picture, for under the California law an elementary school is an eighth grade school. This is of interest here because of the average daily attendance money (ADA) paid by the state to the school district, so prior to 1948 all of the ADA money stayed in Sierra Madre with the pupils, but after 1948, when the Highland Avenue school was completely filled by sixth graders down, and the seventh and eighth were sent to occupy the quarters in Pasadena we had been maintaining for them, after 1943 I point out that the ADA money went to Pasadena with the pupil, and at no time belonged to the district, but to the pupil. In 1948 the ADA money just about took care of teacher salary.

In 1951 there was a different situation. Educational costs were rising fast—teaching and building. There was a marked break between the cost of teaching through the sixth grade and seventh through tenth—and Pasadena was not happy about her part of the contract. She had to educate our seventh and eighth graders for the costs as stated in the contract. This bind becomes harder to take each year. The amount of money Pasadena has to make up for the Sierra Madre pupils, who get the same education as the Pasadena pupil in the seventh and eighth grades is evident each time our school prints the costs of educating in Sierra Madre as compared to Pasadena, Arcadia or San Marino, which is usually done to make us feel our children are being cheated—or due to good management. It is due to this contract.

Pasadena is saying, "Put them all in or take them all out." Everybody who has given this question any thought at all knows we cannot afford to take them all out—and maybe we could not afford to break the contract and pay our own way in Pasadena. In the 30s Pasadena needed our assessed valuation for her school bonds. Due to the industrial growth in Pasadena with the tax revenues from industrial property if we joined the Pasadena School District—unified—certainly our children wouldn't suffer any disadvantage, it would benefit the homeowner taxpayer, and only jolt a few who wear their local pride like a chip on their shoulder. This should be put to a vote.

Sincerely,

MRS. GRACE R. VANE.

PRAISES WARK

Dear Sir:

It is with considerable anticipation that I look forward to receiving my weekly copy of the "Sierra Madre News," and one of the first things that I always look for is to see whether Bill Wark's column "On the Trails" made the issue.

I was particularly pleased to read the nice things said of my father in last week's issue.

Some of the happiest memories of my boyhood are those occasions prior to World War I when my father could get away for a week or so and we would take pack trip back to the then relatively inaccessible Chilao - Waterman - Twin Peaks area.

He told many stories of the early days, the "out of this world" fishing to be had at West Port. The mountain sheep could sometimes be spotted on the craggy south slopes of Twin Peaks, as well as interesting stories of the early day personalities who frequented our "back country."

I look forward to the time a few years hence when I can re-visit our beloved hills and hope there are a few spots still left in a primitive condition requiring at least a few miles hike or pack.

Sincerely yours,

P. N. CARTER

Marian Ellen Oakley Marries Thomas Carl Lister June 8

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carl Lister —Maryland Studio

Marian Ellen Oakley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Stephen Oakley, 90 Suffolk, exchanged nuptial vows with Thomas Carl Lister, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Lister, 910 Fallen Leaf Rd., June 8 in Sierra Madre Congregational Church. Rev. George W. Lindsay officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a white Chantilly lace over satin floor length gown fashioned with a fitted long sleeve bodice and full bouffant skirt. Sequins and seed pearls were used to decorate the dress and Juliet cap which held her elbow length French illusion veil. The lace in her dress had been brought from Paris by the bridegroom's father. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias, stephanotis, lily of the valley and white orchids.

The maid-of-honor, Marsha Marie Lister, sister of the groom, and bridesmaids, Mrs. Frederick Peter Kinkle, Mrs. Merton Stanley Williams and Mrs. Gerald Kenneth Trout, sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Sharon Ann Smith, wore ballroom length frocks with fitted white Chantilly lace bodices and bouffant skirts of white tulle. Their white picture hats were accented by red roses and they carried cascade bouquets of red roses with long satin streamers.

Derwood Raymond Crocker was best man and the guests were seated by Frederick Peter Kinkle, Fanning Tucker Oakley III, brother of the bride, Lawrence Howard Mutschler and Robert Stuart Tope.

Anoakia School Plans Summer Day Camp

Anoakia School will again offer tutoring in basic subjects at its Summer Day Camp.

In conjunction with a program of sports and crafts, students from first grade through high school may have coaching in reading, arithmetic, spelling and writing. A strong emphasis will be put on helping the children have a happier approach to school work.

As in the past three years, this part of the program will be under the direction of Ralph H. Pinney, a regular teacher in the Sierra Madre Elementary School. He has headed this remedial program in the Sierra Madre schools, both in a full time and part time capacity, for the past eight years.

For further information concerning this program, call Anoakia School at ELgin 5-1438, or Mr. Pinney at Hillcrest 7-0275. The summer session is a flexible one and allows for family vacation plans.

'FISH PARADE'

With Los Angeles schools participating in that segment ending their terms, a flock of the 1957 "big-fish parade" of junior-grade Izaak Walton of the tackle-busters," the their parents are expected to join in the Los Angeles City Recreation Crowley Lake in the Eastern and Park Department announced yesterday.

Combined Schools

Practically speaking, a one cent raise in Pasadena would more than pay the salaries of five teachers at $5,000 each per year while it would require almost a 4 1/2 cent raise in the Sierra Madre rate to pay the teacher at the same salary.

3. EXISTING Bonded Indebtedness.

Under the terms of the Education Code, Sierra Madre would continue to be liable for existing bonded indebtedness of the school district and the property within would continue to be taxed for bond redemption and interest until it is paid off, in the same manner as it would be taxed if it had not unified with Pasadena.

The property of the Sierra Madre District, however, does not assume any obligation for the existing bonded indebtedness of the Pasadena District unless the people vote by a two-thirds majority to do so.

When any bonds are sold by the Pasadena District subsequent to annexation of Sierra Madre, regardless of date of authorization by vote of the people, Sierra Madre property becomes liable for such bonded indebtedness.

Consider Sierra Madre's bond requirements that are now developing into issues and additional financial obligations of our small district.

Our legal bond limit is $642,000 and we now have $293,000 issued, leaving a balance of $349,000, which will be substantially reduced should we vote almost $300,000 as an issue for needed classrooms.

4. TAX RATES.

Our District already is subject to tax rates applied to the Pasadena High School and Junior College Districts. If we annex our elementary schools, the only difference in the tax rates would be in relation to the elementary district.

The current Pasadena elementary tax rate is $1.5363 to every $100 assessed property valuation. The current Sierra Madre rate is $1.4882. Our bond rate is $0.2592, making the total Sierra Madre elementary rate, including bonds, $1.7474.

If we were assessing the current Pasadena rate, plus bonds, our tax rate would be $1.7955 or an amount 481 greater than we are now paying. Above figures apply to the 1956-57 school year.

However, this would include a greatly expanded school program which would be impossible for Sierra Madre to provide without serious tax increases.

5. PLANT EXPANSION in Sierra Madre.

Pasadena Board of Education policy is to eliminate double sessions in all instances except kindergarten by building additional classrooms as needed. This policy would be applied to Sierra Madre as well.

6. SPECIAL Services.

The Pasadena school system includes a special office of elementary education; a co-ordinator of learning materials who is in charge of an extensive audio-visual department and central library; a coordinator of guidance and counseling under whom are six psychologists and supervisors; offices of art, music, health and physical education. This personnel aids teachers and others to improve and strengthen the educational program.

In addition there are the offices of Child Welfare, Chief Physician, Recreation, Child Care and Education Services of all these would become available to Sierra Madre elementary pupils.

7. TEACHERS, Staff and Salary Schedules.

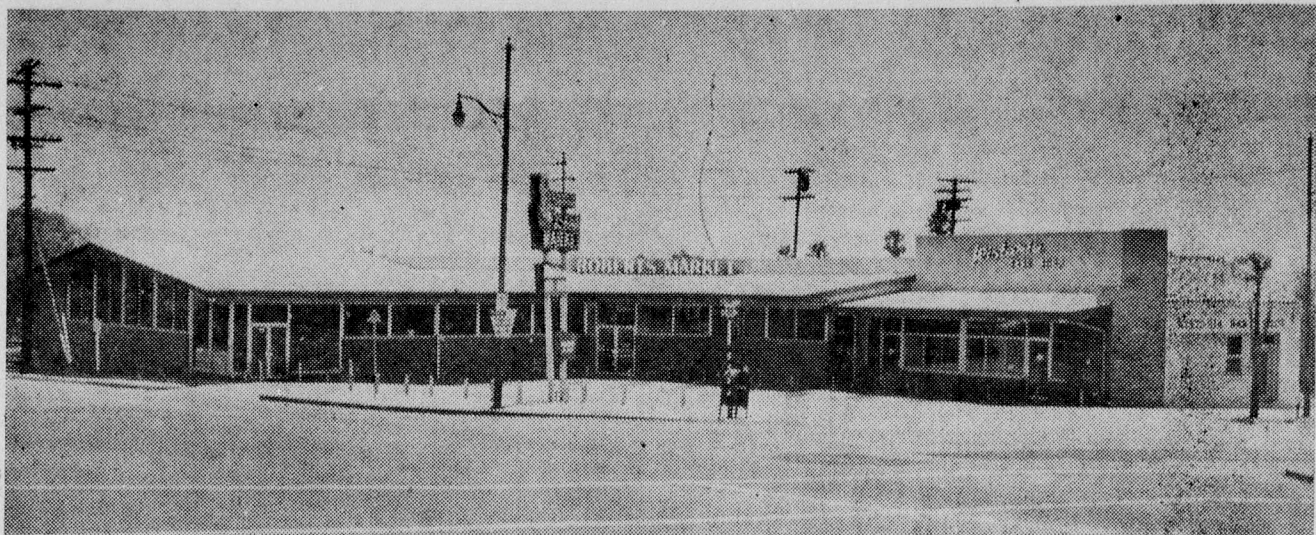

Annexation of one district to another is covered by the Education Code which provides that certificated and non-certificated personnel of Sierra Madre would be blanketed into the Pasadena District with the same rights and privileges at that time held by them.

Administrators, however, maintain status only as teachers and suitable assignments would have to be worked out for those who might transfer to Pasadena. Certificated and non-certificated personnel would be placed on the existing Pasadena salary schedules in accordance with training and experience.

Time served in Sierra Madre would count the same as time served in Pasadena for purposes of placement on the salary schedule.

8. CLASS SIZE.

The present Pasadena Board of Education policy to

Hesperia Inn Will Open June 28

More than one-half of California's population under the age of 40 has received some protection against paralytic polio since the vaccine became available two years ago, according to Dr. Malcolm H. Merrill, state health director.

Located in Victor Valley, the Hesperia Inn facilities will include a shopping center, western museum, convention hall, swimming pool, banquet rooms, cocktail lounge, 18-hole golf course and a nine-hole short course, tennis courts, riding and other guest privileges at the Hesperia Dude Ranch.

For the angler, there will be trout fishing in a nearby artificial stream.

The golf course is scheduled for play in mid-summer. The convention hall will be finished in the early fall. Upon completion, Hesperia will represent a total investment estimated at $1,200,000.

Heading the stage show for the opening week will be night club and recording star, Frances Faye.

CIRCLES OF COMMUNICATION

Every year, every month, every week, the circles of communication widen. Everywhere new telephones are being installed at a rapid rate, broadening conversation possibilities and thereby increasing the value of the telephone.

In the last ten years California Water & Telephone Company has increased the number of telephones in service by 420 per cent. To achieve this gain $42,000,000 was spent for equipment, construction and installation, increasing the plant investment by 1135 per cent.

And the demand for telephones continues to grow. To keep up with it, to bring telephones to more and more people, an additional $12,200,000 will be spent in 1957 to improve and expand facilities.

Margaret Hill Named Dean At Anoakia

The board of trustees of Anoakia School has announced the appointment of Margaret E. Hill as dean of academic studies for the coming year.

Miss Hill is a graduate of Ferry Hall in Lake Forest, Ill. She received her B.A. degree from Mills College,

MARGARET E. HILL

Calif., and her M.A. from Western Reserve University, Cleveland.

Miss Hill's experience is extensive, including teaching French at the senior high school in Cleveland and the Marlborough School, Los Angeles. For the past ten years she has been head of the French department at Anoakia.

During World War II, Miss Hill was president of the Southern California Division of American Aid to France and executive secretary of the United Nations War Relief Council.

In recognition of her outstanding work in these fields she received several citations, including the Legion of Honor from France. She has served on the Community Chest of Pasadena and the Los Angeles Welfare Federation. At present Miss Hill is a member of the women's executive board of the latter organization.

This past year Miss Hill has been president of Pasadena Mills College Club, having previously worked on the club's college information committee.

Through Miss Hill's instruction many of the student graduates from Anoakia have received advanced standing in French upon entering college.

Miss Hill will continue to remain in the capacity as head of the French department in addition to assuming her new duties as dean of academic studies.

Under certain circumstances silence has the most telling effect.

THE FOUNDER of The Sierra Madre News, Rev. R. T. Cowles, and his wife cut a wedding cake at a recent reception in Waterford, Calif., honoring the couple's 50th wedding anniversary. Mr. Cowles, who kindly sent the photo to The News, printed the first issue of The Sierra Madre News nearly 51 years ago. In a letter accompanying the photo, Mr. Cowles said that when he was here "Sierra Madre was just beginning to wake up. It had been only a short time that the electric cars had been running and people were beginning to come out from L.A. to reside and commute to work." Mr. Cowles owned several other papers, including the Waterford News, which he sold in 1946. He and his wife were missionaries in China from 1907 to 1924, and he continued to preach while putting out the Waterford paper. Although retired from the newspaper business, Mr. Cowles still continues his missionary work in the mountains about 18 miles from Waterford.

Toastmasters Hear Members

Breaking the ice with his first speech to the Sierra Madre Toastmasters Club, Richard S. Friend was voted Best Speaker at last week's meeting of the club.

"Ricardo Amigo" was the title of Mr. Friend's seven-minute talk. He discussed his childhood days in his native city of Pasadena and followed through to the present time.

Four other members of the club presented speeches: Wendell Booth, Dr. John Caffey, Kenneth White and Paul Gros, who also gave his first—as "ice breaker"—talk.

Robert Chisler conducted the meeting as toastmaster of the evening. Table topics discussion was led by George Mannschreck.

The club meets every second and fourth Wednesday at 7 p.m. at the Rancho Hillcrest in Pasadena.

CLEAR CONSCIENCE

The man who always does the honorable thing never has to seek justification for his actions.

It never pays a man with a narrow gauge mind to try to entertain more than one idea at a time.

Only an iron will enables a man to save himself from himself.

NEED A NEW WATER HEATER?

1. CHOOSE GAS! 98 out of 100 have... because Gas heats water three times faster—easily keeps ahead of washing machines, dish washers and growing families. Gas costs less, too!

2. CHOOSE THE RIGHT SIZE! Too small a heater gets overworked—doesn't last as long nor serve you as well. Your plumber's approved sizing chart shows the proper size heater for your family.

3. CHOOSE QUALITY! One good way to tell a quality Gas water heater that won't rust is to look for the Verified Long Life Seal shown here... or insist on a ten-year warranty when you order. You may buy on convenient terms—even arrange credit and financing over the phone with your plumber.

On the Trails . . .

Mountain Lions, Snakes Abound in 'Good Old Days'

By Bill Wark

"My second visit was in the early spring of 1893. The winter had been dry and cattle were being pastured through Chillum (Chilao) Canyon and Horse Flats, the herders Totty and Snodgrass camping near the old cabin for water supply. Feed became so scarce that some of the weaker stock died and the herd was taken out.

"The next year sheep were driven in by Spanish herders, coming along the foot of the mountains from Cajon Pass and into the flats by way of Little Rock Creek. Many were killed by mountain lions and fires were kept burning at night to keep them away.

"John Hartwell of Pasadena was with me on this trip and we were building the new trail which had been laid out by Newcomb by way of Short Cut Canyon. We camped for a time on the West Fork. Fishing was good and it was no unusual thing to catch 40 trout before breakfast and the two of us finish them at the meal.

"One night the burro lifted the kettle of prunes, simmering on the fire, and with the handle in his mouth started down the canyon. A wild yell from Hartwell and the burro set them down in the trail without spilling a prune.

"In the spring of 1898 a party consisting of Myrta and Myra Sturtevant, Julia Carter, W. D. Medill, an engineering student from Stanford University by name of Dart, with Mrs. Carter and myself as chaperones went to Chillum for a month's vacation and later joined by Lou Newcomb.

"The women did the cooking and housework, the men kept up the wood and meat supply, and there was ample time for many delightful excursions into the surrounding areas. At that time there was plenty of game on the flats, and on one of our trips we found bear tracks 13 inches long.

"In 1924, with my daughter and two of her schoolgirl chums, we spent several weeks at Chillum, roaming much of the surrounding area, including Horse Flats, Pinon Flat, upper Little Rock Creek, Buckhorn Flat and Mt. Waterman, including the wild south slope. One trip we will always remember was down the beautiful, rock-walled gorge of the East Fork of Alder Creek through scenery so fine that we named it Little Grand Canyon. On this trip we stopped at Loomis Beach for one of those chicken dinners for which Mrs. Loomis was famous.

"That summer on the flats was a banner year for rattlesnakes and, including a few killed by the Pine Flats ranger, we had 27 to our credit. When we first arrived in camp we found one coiled up in the ditch oven and one, that was evidently hunting frogs, at the water hole.

"Those were the days when one must really love the mountains to make the effort; the days of the patient burro and narrow trails, when you watched for wide spots to pass the pack-train and then were careful to take the outside when it took two days of hard hiking to cover the 30 miles to Chillum; the good old days.

And some baseball fans will tell you that it rains on the just and the umpte alike.

Henry Greger Wins Local Tennis Club Tournament

After many weeks of elimination play among the nearly 30 members of the Sierra Madre Tennis Club, its Inter-Club Tournament was climaxed Sunday, June 16, on the local courts at City Park, when Henry Greger met Harry Elwood in the finals. Mr. Greger won in a three-set final by a score of 6-3, 7-9, 6-3 and was declared club champion.

The special club trophies to both the champion and the runner-up will be presented at the seventh general meeting at the Park House Friday, June 28, at 7:45 p.m.

The same meeting will also include the presentation of trophies to the winners and runners-up of the Club's Eighth Open Tournament, held on May 26. The final pitted Marilyn Greger and Wayne Perry against Bob Englert and Hal Bogardus. The latter partners won in straight sets, 11-9, 6-1.

Other events at the general meeting will include the voting, by ballot, to determine the club member whose playing has shown, in the opinion of members present, the most improvement during the tennis year. The prize will be a free club membership for the year 1957-58, which begins on July 1.

The crowning event of the evening will be the showing of the 300-foot action color film, taken of all participants in the May 26 open tournament. The film is unedited and uncensored.

Nominations, election and installation of new officers for the coming year also will take place during the evening.

Pack 381 Sets Picnic June 22

Cub Scout Pack 381 will have a picnic at Santa Anita Park in Arcadia, Saturday, June 22, from 3 to 6 p.m.

There will be games and final awards for the year will be made. Each den is responsible for its own picnic supper which starts at 5 o'clock.

Time waits for no one. Truer words were never spoken. The final report cards came in last week and the promotions along with them. For some it meant the end of grammar school, others high school, and still others college. The leaders of tomorrow walked out of the doors of learning into a world that is as upset as it was 20 or 50 or even 100 years ago.

We are beset by the same things our forefathers had to face and even then the youth of the country came up and saved us from what seemed like complete chaos. The only difference today being that we go just a little faster and thus have different kinds of problems and more of them. However, our youths of today are more educated in greater masses so this too will balance the scales.

IN THE aftermath of weddings department, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Pyle of 1432 Old House Road, had an impromptu breakfast at Gwynn's with 12 guests a week ago Sunday, the day after Julie's wedding to Lt. Ronald Perry. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Smith of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Warne of Pala Alto, and Mr. and Mrs. William J. Rowe. Last Thursday Mrs. Pyle had a few of the neighbors and her friends in for an afternoon coffee party to view the beautiful wedding gifts received by the couple.

MR. AND MRS. C. Thomas Crawford of 1360 Sierra Madre Villa entertained 21 guests at a family barbecue on June 16, honoring the family fathers and graduates. Among those present were the Robert Armstrongs, Edward Sandstroms, I. A. Crawfords and the R. I. Crawfords. Carol, the C. Thomas Crawford daughter, graduated from Pasadena High School and will be working as a Nurses Aide at the Huntington Memorial Hospital this summer prior to continuing her nurses career in the fall. Chris Crawford just finished at Marshall Junior High. Cheryl and Michael Crawford graduated from Toll Junior High in Glendale.

MR. AND MRS. J. Baxter Jovenat of 3307 Fairpoint became grandparents again on the 27th of May. A third son, David Cameron, was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Jovenat, weighing in at 7 pounds, 10 ounces. His two brothers are Steven, 3, and Michael, 5. The William Jovenats live in La Verne. Mr. and Mrs. J. Baxter Jovenat left today for a two-week trip in the East. They intend to stop off in Buffalo and then proceed to Lake Placid, N.Y., where Mr. Jovenat will attend the Connecticut Mutual Leaders Round Table Convention. After the convention they will meet friends and spend a little time before returning to California. They have friends staying at their home in their absence.

PARTYWISE, Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Zook of 1120 Mesa Road recently entertained at a cocktail party for around 100 guests. They fortunately timed it on one of our better weatherwise days.

SAUNDRA LOU Rippee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Rippee of 1575 Old House Road, has been feted with several showers in the past three weeks to honor her in her coming wedding this Sunday. She is marrying Robert Douglas Fowler at the Central Christian Church in Pasadena. Her sister, Mrs. Wesley Hall James, will arrive tomorrow to act as matron of honor in her wedding. Little Geannie Philipson of this street will be flower girl and her brother, Bobby, is to be ring bearer.

Benjy Film

A showing of the award-winning film, "Benjy" was on the program when the Junior League of Pasadena, Inc., met last week.

In conjunction with the film presentation, Mrs. Eleanor Nelson, public relations representative of the Los Angeles Orthopedic Foundation, told of its plans for a new hospital.

The membership also viewed slides taken at the recent Association of Junior Leagues of America, Inc., annual conference in Coronado and heard reports from Mrs. Harcourt Hervey Jr., Mrs. Daniel Foley and Mrs. William Witmer, who were delegates from the Pasadena Junior League.

After the meeting, a gala cocktail, luncheon and swimming party, planned by Mrs. Howard Wright Jr. and her hospitality committee, was held around the pool.

Tranquilizers Are Helpful
In Mental Treatment

A remarkable change in the types of treatment for mental patients since tranquilization drugs were started was reported by the Veterans Administration this week.

Dr. Thomas J. Hardgrove, manager of the Sepulveda Veterans Administration Hospital, pointed out the changes in the national picture as follows:

1. Electric shock treatment down from 4,527 patients in 1955 to approximately 1,000 patients for the first six months of 1957.
2. Insulin coma treatment cut from 1,486 patients in 1955 to only 383 patients for the first six months of 1957.
3. Neutral packs and tubs sharply reduced from 15,655 patients in 1955 to 1,471 patients for the first six months of 1957.

4. Privileged patients on tranquilizers increased from 2,500 in 1955 to 8,500 in the first half of 1957.

5. Trial visits away from the hospitals increased from 9,985 patients in 1955 to 12,351 in 1956.

Church Club
Slates Bridge,
Swim Parties

The Schooner Club of Trinity Presbyterian Church has scheduled a potluck supper and evening of bridge or canasta Monday night for the regular meeting of the couples' group in Fellowship Hall.

Host couples for the affair will be Mr. and Mrs. Mel Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mac Donough and Mr. and Mrs. John Morris.

July 27 will find the Schooners swimming and picnicking at Newport Beach, where they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Taylor. Another swimming party is scheduled in August, the details to be announced later.

PHIL CALHOUN, 1840 Kinneloa Canyon Rd., Sierra Madre Villa, demonstrates his shrinking head illusion. Mr. Calhoun uses an actual human head which came from Ecuador and a second head made from goatskin to perform the trick. Past president of the Pasadena Magicians Guild, Mr. Calhoun once gave a command performance for the Duke and Duchess of Windsor in the British West Indies. An insurance salesman, Mr. Calhoun actually has only two arms, not three as the trick photo shows, and leads a reasonably normal life with his wife, Jane, and the couple's two children, Phyllis Jane, 3, and Philip James, 1. He is now at a Columbus Mutual Life Insurance convention in Miami where he will present the shrinking head illusion.

HELPING TO PLAN the national convention of Alpha Chi Omega June 25 at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel are these members of the decorating committee which met last Thursday at a brunch at the home of Mrs.

Hastings Teen Times

By Pat Smith
ELgin 5-1903

I don't know about you, but my mother and I have very widely differing ideas of what summer activities should be. To me, summer vacation is a time to sleep in, loaf, go swimming, go down town or just goof off with the gang. BUT these are not my mother's ideas. Summer vacation is a time when there are teenagers around to lift furniture, pull every weed in the yard, wash windows, not to mention the ironing, which of course has been saved up since Christmas.

I always thought that we lived in a pretty nice house, reasonably clean, acceptably tidy, but it seems now has other ideas. I keep hearing descriptions like "tenement," "substandard" and "Black Hole of Calcutta."

This is the time of year when friends come visiting from afar and relatives you haven't seen since you were two days old and seem so amazed that you have grown, drop in. Heaven forbid that they should find out how we REALLY live. Oh, no, they have to be made comfortable in a house looking like a display window. Oh, well, if I think I am suffering I just think of my poor brothers.

I wondered if others felt the way my mother and I do. Carolyn Howell thinks vacation time is the time for "completely relaxing, forgetting about school, going to the beach, go swimming, and observe Thursdays closely." Mrs. Howell, who should "learn to sew, weed, can fruits, make jelly and wash woodwork."

John Werbelow wants to go to the beach, but Mrs. Werbelow wants John to paint the house. Randy Zorn thinks he should sleep in late, eat lots of food and go to the beach, but Mrs. Zorn says he must do his chores. Jan Lindman wants to go to Bal and Mrs. Lindman wants a vacation, too.

All the mothers wanted their kids to have fun this summer, but remember that our parents want a vacation, too, so let's help them all relax so they can have fun in the sun.

NANCY COLLIER and Elaine Eastwood and the Collier's 1910 Maxwell, and Eastwood's 1905 Buick were among the 100 cars, all members of the Horseless

Sports in Haste . . .

For That Haunted Look,
Enlist in Little League

By John B. DuBois, Guest Columnist

It all started in the spring of 1954. Nothing has been the same since. For that was the year Little League Baseball came to the once peaceful slope of Hastings Ranch. And that was the year I said "yes" and became wed to this monstrous thing.

Oh, it's been fun these past four years. And it's great to develop the boys, and all that stuff.

But today I am a shell of my former self. My nerves are shattered. Hair is now gray. Fingers crooked from trying to catch my crazy pitchers. Strictly a pipe smoker. I now find myself begging cigarettes off the parents and chain-smoking during the games. I bark at umpires and snap at my players' kid sisters.

MY WIFE never plans a social affair on game nights for fear I'll be embarrassingly giddy over a win or moodily despondent over a loss. My liquor bill has skyrocketed, as has the doctor bill (psychiatrist, that is), and the "mainliner" route is only one season away.

Oh, but it's been fun! And it's great to develop the boys. But let me secretly confess some manager problems . . .

Basic problem is manpower. Just too much of it—15 boys on a team while only nine can play. I say let all 15 play at the same time by adding a catcher for the catcher, a backer-upper for the first baseman, two more outfielders, and two roaming players who would wander around and confuse the opposition.

THEN THERE is the Problem Parent. "Get my Johnny in the game" type. (No comment.) And every team has The Voice, who in the hushed

Sets Plant
Exchange

All Hastings Ranch residents are invited to a Las Jardineras "plant swapping" session from 11 a.m. to noon Tuesday at the home of Mrs. William Lansill, 3745 Landfair.

The invitation was offered by the Las Jardineras president, Mrs. Harry Masser, who said the "home and garden" club was opening its annual plant exchange to all interested gardeners in the neighborhood as a gesture of community goodwill.

"We all desire to keep Hastings Ranch an outstanding residential community and would like to share our plants, as well as our enthusiasm in keeping Hastings beautiful," she added.

Mrs. Masser said labels will be available so that all plants may be marked. For each plant brought, another may be taken home. Shrubs, annuals, perennials, succulents, cuttings and volunteer plants in small cans, pots, milk cartons or other containers are welcome.

The community exchange will precede the final regular meeting of the year for Las Jardineras. The meeting will begin at 12:30 p.m., with retiring officers acting as hostesses for a luncheon and bridge. New officers will be elected during a short business session.

Mrs. Masser will fetter her executive board at a bridge luncheon at her Canfield Road home tomorrow. Officers serving with Mrs. Masser have been Mrs. Charles Coates, vice president; Mrs. William Lansill, recording secretary; Mrs. John Atkinson, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Russell Pooler, treasurer.

APPOINT BROWN

Leland W. Brown, Arcadia, has been appointed field engineering training manager for the ElectroData Division of Burroughs Corp. in Pasadena, J. F. Kalbach, ElectroData field engineering manager, announced.

Pasadena children may learn to bowl, play badminton, the violin, swim, dance, act, take hikes and attend many interesting programs on a variety of subjects through the summer schedule of the Pasadena Recreation Department.

Both Eugene Field and Don Benito elementary school playgrounds are included in the fun schedule, being open from 10 a.m. to noon and from 12:30 to 4:30 p.m. Mondays through Fridays with the exception of July 4 and July 31.

Swimming instruction is given at PCC and Muir High School; tennis at Eliot, Marshall, PCC and Muir and at Brookside and Eaton-Blanche parks.

The Children's Museum at the Jefferson recreation center will be open by appointment to youth groups.

Two Families

Two Newhaven Road families enjoyed a recent weekend in Las Vegas, the Tony Stables and the John Veales.

The group flew to the desert metropolis and then used a car for sightseeing in the area.

Court of Awards
For Don Benito
Girl Scouts

"The Song of the Big Tree Region" designating the far western area of the Girl Scouts of the United States opened the first Court of Awards ceremony of Don Benito Girl Scout Troop 323, around a campfire at Sierra Madre Villa Park June 14 at 7:30 p.m., to which parents and friends were invited.

Occasion for the gathering was the awarding to the following troop members second class rank, the home-maker and adventurer badges: Tinnie Barnes, Patricia Burke, Carol Cairncross, Patsy Carley, Bonnie Ewen, Pamela Farnworth, Robin Hardison, Anne Harris, Malinda Hays, Jane Knight, Elise Lamar, Gai Lewis, Cathy McLane, Maya Morse, Nancy Sanders and Anne Thackrey.

In addition, a child care badge was presented to Carol Cairncross and a swimmer badge to Patsy Carley. Other troop members are Mickey Fisher and Bette Lynn Moore.

Songs, skits, badge awards and a Flag Ceremony made up the evening's program followed by "S'mores" and punch for refreshments.

Leaders of the troop have been Mrs. Don Hays and Mrs. Rod Carley. They have been assisted by troop committee members Mesdames Charles Hardison, Vic Harris, James Thackrey and Douglas Ewen.

Taking part in the dancing and midnight supper were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Bolde-mann, Mr. and Mrs. Don Strasser, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Goldsmith, Mr. and Mrs. Al Bergh, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Potter, Mr. and Mrs. John Glaser and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Nothman.

BANKING COMFORT FOR SMALL-PRY—Her name isn't "Junior," but Linda Leel, 10 months, and her mother, Mrs. Richard Leel, 1820 Alta Oaks Drive, appreciate the novel high chair feature at Security-First National Bank's Foot-hill and Rosemead Branch. This is the bank branch, incidentally, which also inaugurated the custom of serving free morning coffee to customers and fellow business people.

Garden Notes...

Brilliant Hibiscus Grows Well in Most of State

Brilliant flower colors and vigorous habit of growth make the Hibiscus a fine plant for most areas of California. Hibiscus are divided into two species—tropical evergreen and hardy perennial. The evergreen, H. rosa-sinensis, called Chinese Hibiscus or Rose of China, needs winter warmth and humidity and therefore does best along the coast of central and southern California.

IT HAS attractive dark green, glossy foliage and single or double blooms in a range of colors from yellow to amber, and white to shell pink, rose and vermilion. The Chinese Hibiscus grows to eight or 10 feet and is most effective in single or group plantings by itself or against evergreens that don't offer too much competition in color. It can be successfully and attractively grown in containers, too. Plant this Hibiscus species in full sun, water regularly and mulch with leaf mold during the summer.

Rose of Sharon (H. syriacus) is a hardy perennial that does well in all areas of the state. It will grow five to 12 feet tall with single or double flowers in the same color range as the evergreen Hibiscus, including bluish shades. In winter, the Rose of Sharon dies to the ground and comes back in spring to bloom from mid-summer to frost.

PLANT THE perennial Hibiscus in sun and keep it moist at all times. It will grow best in a hot location—against a wall or in a full as it deserves to be.

There are many name varieties of both the evergreen and perennial Hibiscus species. Brilliant (red), Crown of Bohemia (gold with tones of copper and orange), and Kate Sessions (amber-pink) are well known evergreen Hibiscus varieties; Confederate Rose (red) is a popular perennial Hibiscus.

Any action taken for spite is usually about as successful as a wall or in a full as it deserves to be.

Booklet on Dog Training
Available at Area Clinic

Dog owners in Sierra Madre and surrounding communities may obtain without cost a new booklet of instructions for training, teaching and care of both young and old dogs.

This booklet is available at the Memorial Free Clinic for animals and fowls, located on Mountain Avenue, north of Pacific Electric tracks, and adjoining the Monrovia City Pound.

The clinic is open from 4 to 5 p.m. each Monday, Wednesday and Friday, for free veterinary treatment of sick and injured animals and fowls, owned by people in the surrounding area, who are unable to pay for such services.

Monrovia shares the benefits without cost to the neighboring cities of Sierra Madre, Glendora, Azusa, Duarte, Arcadia, Temple City and El Monte. All of this is made possible through the generosity of Miss H. Gertrude Bird of Boston, Mass., who is nationally known for her interest and support of animal welfare, especially in the New England States.

The Memorial Free Clinic in Monrovia was established in 1941 by Miss Bird in memory of her mother, Mrs. Mary Bird, a resident of Monrovia for many years. Miss Bird supplied practically all of the money for the erection of the Clinic Building, its equipment and operating expense.

Immunization Certificate Is Vital for Foreign Traveler

By Dr. Roy O. Gilbert
L.A. County Health Officer

A person who spends his vacation outside the continental limits of the United States must provide himself with a certificate of immunization in order to supply foreign and native health officials with written evidence that he has received protection against certain contagious diseases.

For foreign travel this certificate is as necessary as the passport.

The U.S. Public Health Service is the authority that imposes this regulation. The certificate form is usually provided when the individual receives his passport but, if it isn't, it may be obtained from the local office of this federal agency.

Those immunizations that are required are given to protect the health of the individual, and they also help to prevent the passage of communicable diseases from one country to another.

SMALLPOX. Cholera and yellow fever are the three vaccinations most generally recorded on the certificate, although there is space for information on typhoid fever inoculations and any others that are considered advisable. The immunization recommended depends on where the person plans to go.

If vacation travel is confined to Mexico or to Europe, only a smallpox vaccination is required. Should the holiday be spent in Canada or a few other nearby places, no vaccination is required at all.

Surprisingly enough, travelers can often wander from one European country to another without being asked for the certificate. Upon re-entry into this country, however, evidence of immunity to smallpox is demanded from everyone, whether obtained within the past three years or from a previous attack of the disease. If this information is not available, the individual may find himself detained at port of entry for a period of observation.

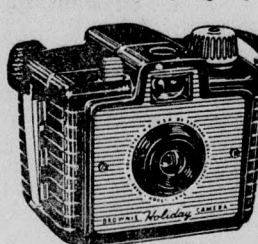

For the most part, people prefer to have necessary travel vaccination done by a private physician who can then record it on the certificate and sign it as required.

AFTER obtaining what is needed the person must then bring the certificate to the local health department office in the area where the doctor has his practice (it may be mailed in with a stamped self-addressed envelope) in order that the form may be officially stamped.

To help the traveler avoid confusion and delay, it is perhaps worth emphasizing that it is the location of the doctor's office that determines where the certificate shall be sent for the stamp of official approval and not the individual's place of residence.

Court of Awards Season's Finale for Girl Scouts

The final official function of the Sierra Madre Girl Scout Council was the Court of Awards, held June 4, in the Sierra Madre School Auditorium.

Mrs. William W. Maloney, first vice president, presided in the absence of Mrs. Harry MacDonough, president. Sixth grade Scouts of Troop 26 presented the colors.

Special events of the evening were a Mariner Troop skit, the introduction of those Mariner Scouts who, as Nurses Aides, have rolled up 1,000 hours of service, and the presentation of Certificates of Merit to Troop 20 Intermediate Scouts and Troop 9 Brownies for outstanding performance in the annual cookie sale. Sierra Madre Girl Scouts sold 400 cases of cookies—a record number—and earned in excess of $1,400 for their camping activities.

The end of the year also marks the advancement in rank from Intermediate Scouts to Senior Scouts for Troop 20, who were also conducted into the Mariner Troop, and the move upward from Brownies to Tenderfoot Scouts for the 4th grade Troop 8.

THE SEMI-ANNUAL luncheon meeting of the Sierra Madre Girl Scout Association, composed of council members, troop leaders, and adult members of the Girl Scout organization, was held Monday, June 3, at the home of Mrs. Hugh Warner, 471 W. Montecito.

Annual reports and adoption of new policies and rules were the main business of the meeting.

BROWNIES of Troop 8 held their Fly-Up ceremonies Friday, June 7, at Arcadia Park at a family picnic supper. The Brownies received their Girl Scout pins, Brownie wings, Girl Scout scarves and handbooks in a simple ceremony, after demonstrating that they had fulfilled the requirements for advancement in rank.

The 18 Brownies flying-up are Janice Anderson, Sherri Bralner, Kristin Brown, Karen Casey, Sandy Custer, Maureen Duffy, Cheryl Fletcher, Jini Hersey, Jann Horswell, Janet Lindstrom, Linda Mitchell, Lynn Morris, Karen Quackenbush, Sally Smith, Isabelle Steele, Barbara Torres, Amy Uyematsu and June Wells.

Mrs. Claude H. Brown Jr. and Mrs. Hollis Lindstrom are co-leaders of the troop.

TROOP 22, seventh grade Scouts, will have a final fling at their father-mother-daughter swimming party and supper Friday, June 14, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Milton Valois, 520 E. Laurel.

DURING the summer, many Sierra Madre girls will be attending established Girl Scout camps in the area.

Attending Camp River Glen, Glendale Council Camp, Seven Oaks, in the San Bernardino Mountains are Susan Fish, Mary Sue French, Reggie Redel, Cathy Reece, Lolita Stedman and Rosemarie Wittig of Troop 26; Candy Chambers, Rita DelValle and Beverly Roane of Troop 27, and Susan MacDonough, Troop 23.

Attending Camp San Emidio, Santa Barbara Council, at Fraser Park, are Kathy Brown, Linda Herrold, Carolyn Kirk and Pam Valois, of Troop 22; and Waverly Gabberry, Tina Jorgenson, Marilyn Kirk and Renee Valois, of Troop 1.

There will be no Brownie day camp in this immediate area during the summer months.

It seems easy enough to get some people excited about politics, but it's a major problem to get them to vote.

BANK'S LOANS UP

Home Savings and Loan Association during the month of April made more loans than any other financial institution or entity in Los Angeles County, totaling $14,144,254.

COLLEGE GRADUATE

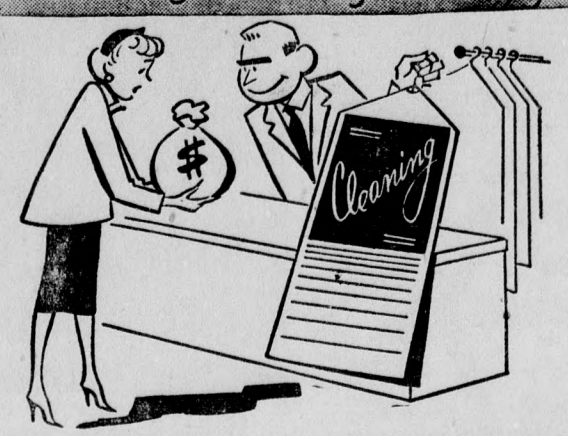

Margaret E. Farrow, daughter of Mrs. V. Gray Farrow, 264 N. Baldwin, graduated from Los Angeles State College on June 14 in Hollywood Bowl. She received her B.A. degree in music.
